TEAM VALOR TOPS ALL NORTH AMERICAN PARTNERSHIPS IN STAKES WINS, FANTASTICO ROBERTO SCORES STAKES VICTORY NUMBER 7 ON MONDAY, STABLE ALMOST MAKES IT 8 WHEN MINUTE LIMIT LOSES BY NOSE FRIDAY

Fantastico Roberto became a black-type winner of the Choice Stakes at Monmouth Park, giving Team Valor International its seventh stakes win of 2010 and more than doubling up on the nearest competitors in West Point and Starlight Stable. Team Valor lost another stakes Friday night when Minute Limit failed by a nose of taking a fixture in California.

Team Valor, which led all public partnerships last year, has been on top for most of the current season and has lots of newcomers and veterans poised to add to the rolls of 2010 stakes winners. Fantastico Roberto became stakes winner 108 for a partnership formed by Barry Irwin since 1987. The strike rate for stakes winners to runners remains high at 26 percent in 24 racing seasons.
