

LUCKY CHAPPY PROFILED AS UNDER-THE-RADAR TRIPLE CROWN THREAT DRF: IF ANYONE CAN GET THIS HORSE TO DERBY, IT IS TVI AND MOTION WRITER DAN ILLMAN SAYS UAE DERBY LOOKS LIKE EXCELLENT TARGET

From Dan Illman of Daily Racing Form comes the following:

Kentucky Derby 2012: Under the Radar - Lucky Chappy

Lucky Chappy will add to his gaudy number of frequent-flier miles when he starts in the Group 2, $2 million UAE Derby at 1 3/16 miles over the Tapeta surface at Meydan on March 31.

An Irish-bred colt raced by the Animal Kingdom connections of Team Valor International and trainer Graham Motion, Lucky Chappy began his career in Italy, competed on both coasts in his four-race North American campaign, and, if all goes right in Dubai, will return to Churchill Downs on the first Saturday in May for a run in the Kentucky Derby.

For the full story, see here.

Irish-bred Lucky Chappy has raced in Italy, Kentucky, Florida and California.
