KENTUCKY DERBY WINNER ANIMAL KINGDOM NOW HAS FACEBOOK PAGE

Team Valor International launched a FaceBook page today for their impressive Kentucky Derby winner Animal Kingdom.

The stable plans to use the site to share photographs of the colt and post useful news and information regarding the Grade 1 winning son of Leroidesanimaux.

On the initial day of the FaceBook presentation, Team Valor posted a video link to the running of the 137th Kentucky Derby, photos and descriptions of Animal Kingdom's family members, and photos of the Derby winner himself at various stages of his development.

In the first ten hours after the launch, more than 360 fans had visited and "liked" the page for the chestnut colt.

To join as a fan of Animal Kingdom, and receive news updates on the horse directly from Team Valor International, go to FaceBook and search for Animal Kingdom Derby Winner or just click on the link below.
