

TEAM VALOR TOPS ALL NORTH AMERICAN PARTNERSHIPS IN STAKES WINS, PLUCK'S GRADE 3 WIN ALLOWS VALOR TO DOUBLE UP ON CLOSEST RIVAL

When home-bred 2-year-old Pluck won the Grade 3 Summer Stakes at Woodbine and nailed down a stall in the starting gate for the $1-million Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf at Churchill Downs, he was winning stakes number 10 this season for a Team Valor International partnership. Team Valor once again has won twice as many stakes races as its near rival among public syndicate groups.

"Actually, we have won 11 stakes races," said Amy Collingsworth, TVI's statistician. "We had one taken away when a colt of ours carried 3 pounds too little due to an administrative error. In our hearts we still feel we won that race. But, alas, it is not reportable in our stats because we didn't keep it."

Team Valor International also ranks behind only WinStar and Jay Em Ess Stable among all owners based in the United States this season in number of Graded stakes winners with 4.
